Art	British Art – Lesson 1 – Painting Landscape in Pieces – Thomas Gainsborough  Thomas Gainsborough is most famous for quick, light coloured paintings. When he was a boy he impressed his father with his drawing and painting skills so much that he was allowed to go to London to study art in 1740 (age 11). Gainsborough was really impressed by Dutch landscape painters. Influences can be seen in his work. Although Gainsborough painted landscapes based on the Suffolk countryside, the images were of imaginary places. His most famous paintings are ‘The Blue Boy’ 1770 and ‘Mr and Mrs Andrews’ 1750. Using the internet, research the work of Thomas Gainsborough.  Consider the following questions:  What can you see in the picture?  What is the story in the painting?  How does the picture make you feel?  Why do you think the artist made it?  What colours can you see in the painting?  What do you think happens next in this painting? Find one of his pictures that you like and have a go at copying it. Please send me your finished picture. I would love to see it. Good luck.
PSHE	Truth  During your silent sitting sessions consider the following situations.  What would you do in each case?  The Big Think: How trusting are you? An online news article says that free school lunches for younger children at your school are going to be cancelled.</li> <li>3. An advert in the paper says that free computer games come with every console bought.</li> <li>4. A text from your school reminds your Parent/Carer that it is non-uniform day next week.</li> </ol> How do you feel when you think you are being lied to?
